

have ensured the progressive and exciting prospects for the school and its students well into the next millennium. The school has successfully managed to make change work to the advantage of all in the school, most importantly, for the educational opportunities available to all students.

Ringwood North Primary School has a very proud history of dedication, hard work and excellence in achievement. Over seven and a half decades parents, teachers and the wider school community have worked industriously to create a school that all can be very proud of. We do have reason to celebrate !
